"All donations will be income tax deductible," said Jim Nolen, another committee member.

"The association has been incorporated under Virginia laws as a non-profit organization and when you contribute you will be helping many young people in the future as well as reducing what you may owe toward state and federal taxes," notes Nolen who operates a real estate agency in the county.

Anyone desiring to make a contribution may mail their donations to Marvin House, Jr., Route 4, Box 47, Appomattox, Va. 24522.

"It's simple to give. Let's make this FFA Land Lab a reality," states Dennis Torrence, past chairman of the association and a big believer in this project.
